Did you guys invent Syco XT®?

Yes. The idea came to Michael Hill while trying to practice surfing cutbacks on a skateboard at a mates place after few beers! See the History of Syco XT for full details.

Why the name "Syco XT®"?

We were looking for a name to describe the experience you feel while flying through the air. The rush you get when you feel the ultimate freedom of a swing that is not restrained in one direction. The feeling of exhilaration, pushing the boundaries just going crazy! So we settled on a term the Japanese use for this feeling "Syco". The XT is short for Cross Trainer as this is the ultimate in cross training. Syco XT® is a registered Trademark of Syco Industries Pty. Ltd.
